

Code of Conduct/Statement of Ethical Practice

ASMOF ACT has a proud reputation as a strong, democratic union. Our officers and staff are expected to uphold this reputation at all times by acting honestly, fairly and with integrity and committing to the highest standards of conduct and behaviour.

Our principles and values

1. Union staff and officers will behave at all times with honesty and integrity in all dealings with members, each other and the wider community.
2. We will make all decisions with the union's best interests in mind, and will not allow personal interests or inducements to influence our decision making.
3. Staff members and officers are bound by, and will respect, the democratic decisions of the union and its rules, policies and procedures.
